

Mary Lou Doude Caldwell

(February 13, 1923 - January 6, 2008)

Graveside services for Mary Lou Doude Caldwell of Kosciusko, formerly of Winona, will be held at 3:00 p.m. on Friday, January 11, 2008, at Vaiden Cemetery in Vaiden, with Rev. Mary Berry officiating. Mrs. Caldwell died from complications of Parkinson's Disease on Sunday, January 6, at Golden Age Nursing Home in Greenwood. She was 84.

Mrs. Caldwell was the daughter of the late Neely Watkins Doude and Sally Lydia Thornton Doude, and the widow of Harvey B. Caldwell, Jr. She was the retired executive secretary for Central Mississippi, Inc., in Winona, a member of St. Matthew's Episcopal Church in Kosciusko, and a member of the American Legion Auxiliary.

In addition to her parents and husband, Mrs. Caldwell was preceded in death by her son, Neely D. Caldwell. She is survived by two sons, Harvey B. Caldwell III of Carrollton and David K. Caldwell of Pearl; six grandchildren, Beth Capezio, Julie Caldwell, and Rusty Caldwell, all of New Jersey, Neely D. Caldwell, Jr., of Louisiana, Kim Rowe of West Virginia, and David K. Caldwell, Jr., of Mississippi; and ten great-grandchildren.

The family would like to offer special thanks to the Orange Wing of Golden Age Nursing Home in Greenwood for the special care given to their mother.

Memorials may be made to the Parkinson's Research Foundation.
